

Help the Youbies Clear the Bases

It's game day in Youville. There's a classic baseball matchup: Claudies versus Youbies.

The Claudies throw curveballs and fastballs to get the Youbies to share their personal information. Help the Youbies score on the Claudies by keeping their information safe.

Read each scenario. Discuss the three questions below. Then write down what you would do next. Clear the bases to make it back home and win the game.

- WHO wants this information?
- WHAT are they trying to get me to do?
- WHY do they want my personal information?

Name_____

Date_____

Help the Youbies Clear the Bases

1 You get a text message offering a free tablet if you give them your date of birth and home address.

2 A pop-up on your tablet says there's a problem with your software. You're asked to enter a credit card number to pay $29.99 or your tablet will be shut down.

3 Someone with an online profile that looks like your best friend is asking questions your friend wouldn't ask.

4 An ad in a game says you'll get free coins if you enter an email address.

5 An online game you're thinking about playing asks for your date of birth.

6 Someone you met playing a video game asks, "Where do you live?"

Help the Youbies Clear the Bases

7

A game you're playing on your parent's phone asks for their email address and full date of birth — month/day/year.

8

You get a text message that you didn't expect. It looks like it's from an online store.

9

You get a text message that says you can get a free tablet just for filling out a survey. The survey asks for your name, address, date of birth, and Social Security number.

10

You get a text message from someone you don't know saying, "Your sibling is hurt. Quick! What's your parent's phone number?"

11

You're at the doctor's office and the receptionist asks for your date of birth.
