

YOUVILLE

PRIVACY AND ONLINE SAFETY | 11-12 YEARS OLD

How To Protect Your Personal Information

FEDERAL TRADE
COMMISSION

YOUVILLE

WARM-UP

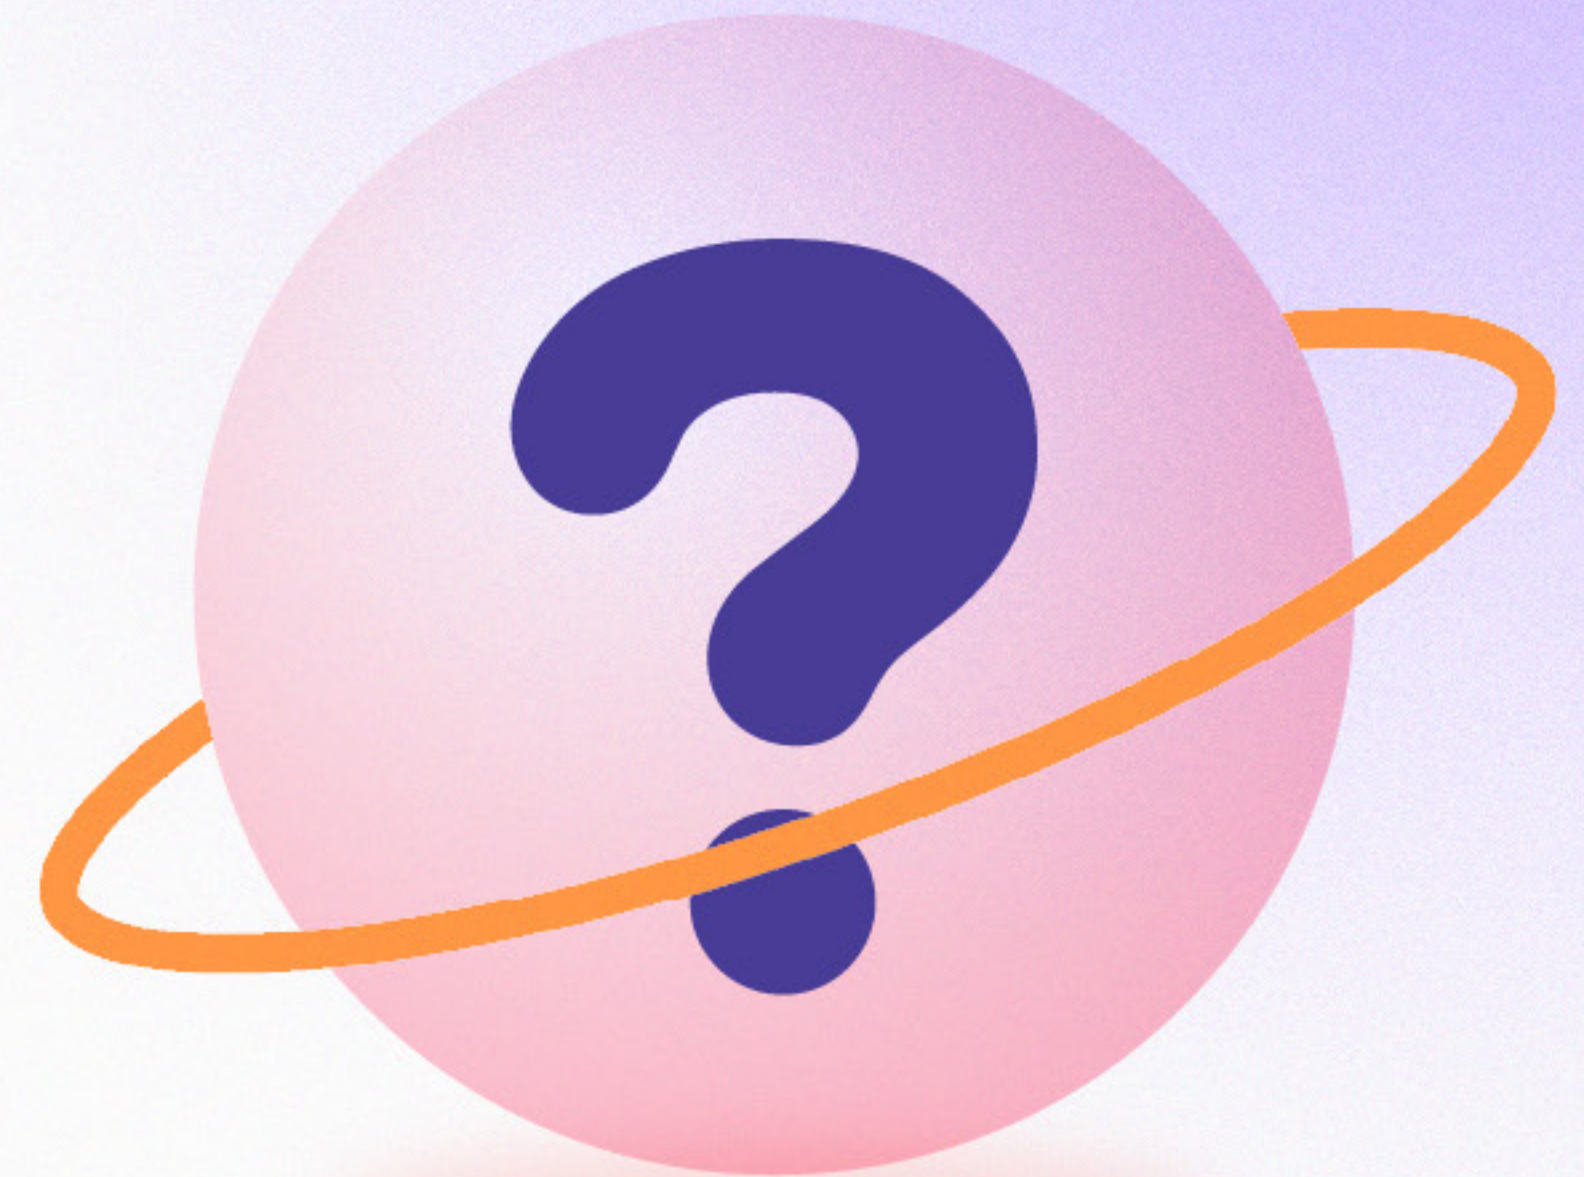

What Information Is Personal

Give examples of things you think are personal information.

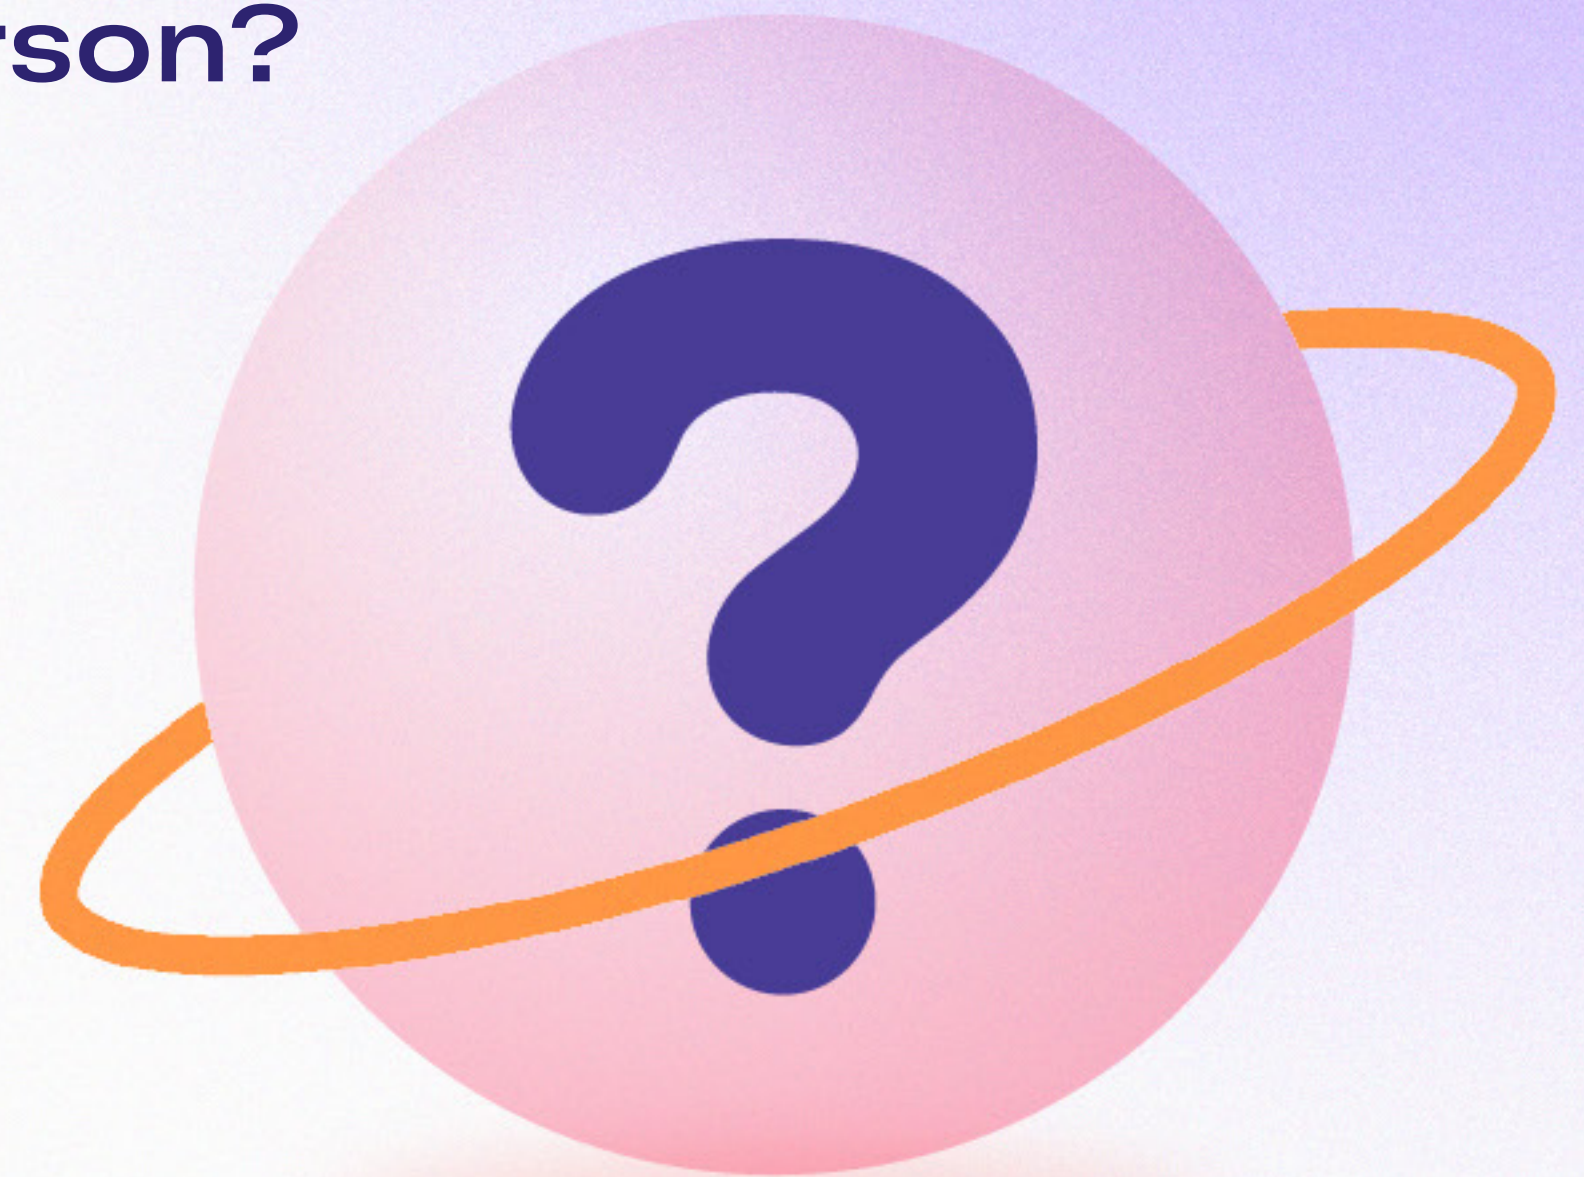

Protect Your Personal Information

- 1 How many of you would give a stranger your full name and address if they asked you in person?

Protect Your Personal Information

- 1 How many of you would give a stranger your full name and address if they asked you in person?
- 2 Imagine you're playing a video game online. A player you don't know gives you a compliment and wants to connect with you on a chat app. How would you respond?

Choosing How To Respond

“No thanks”

Ignore

Block

Talk with a parent or trusted adult

Report

Set stronger privacy settings

CHALLENGE ACTIVITY

Clear the Bases!

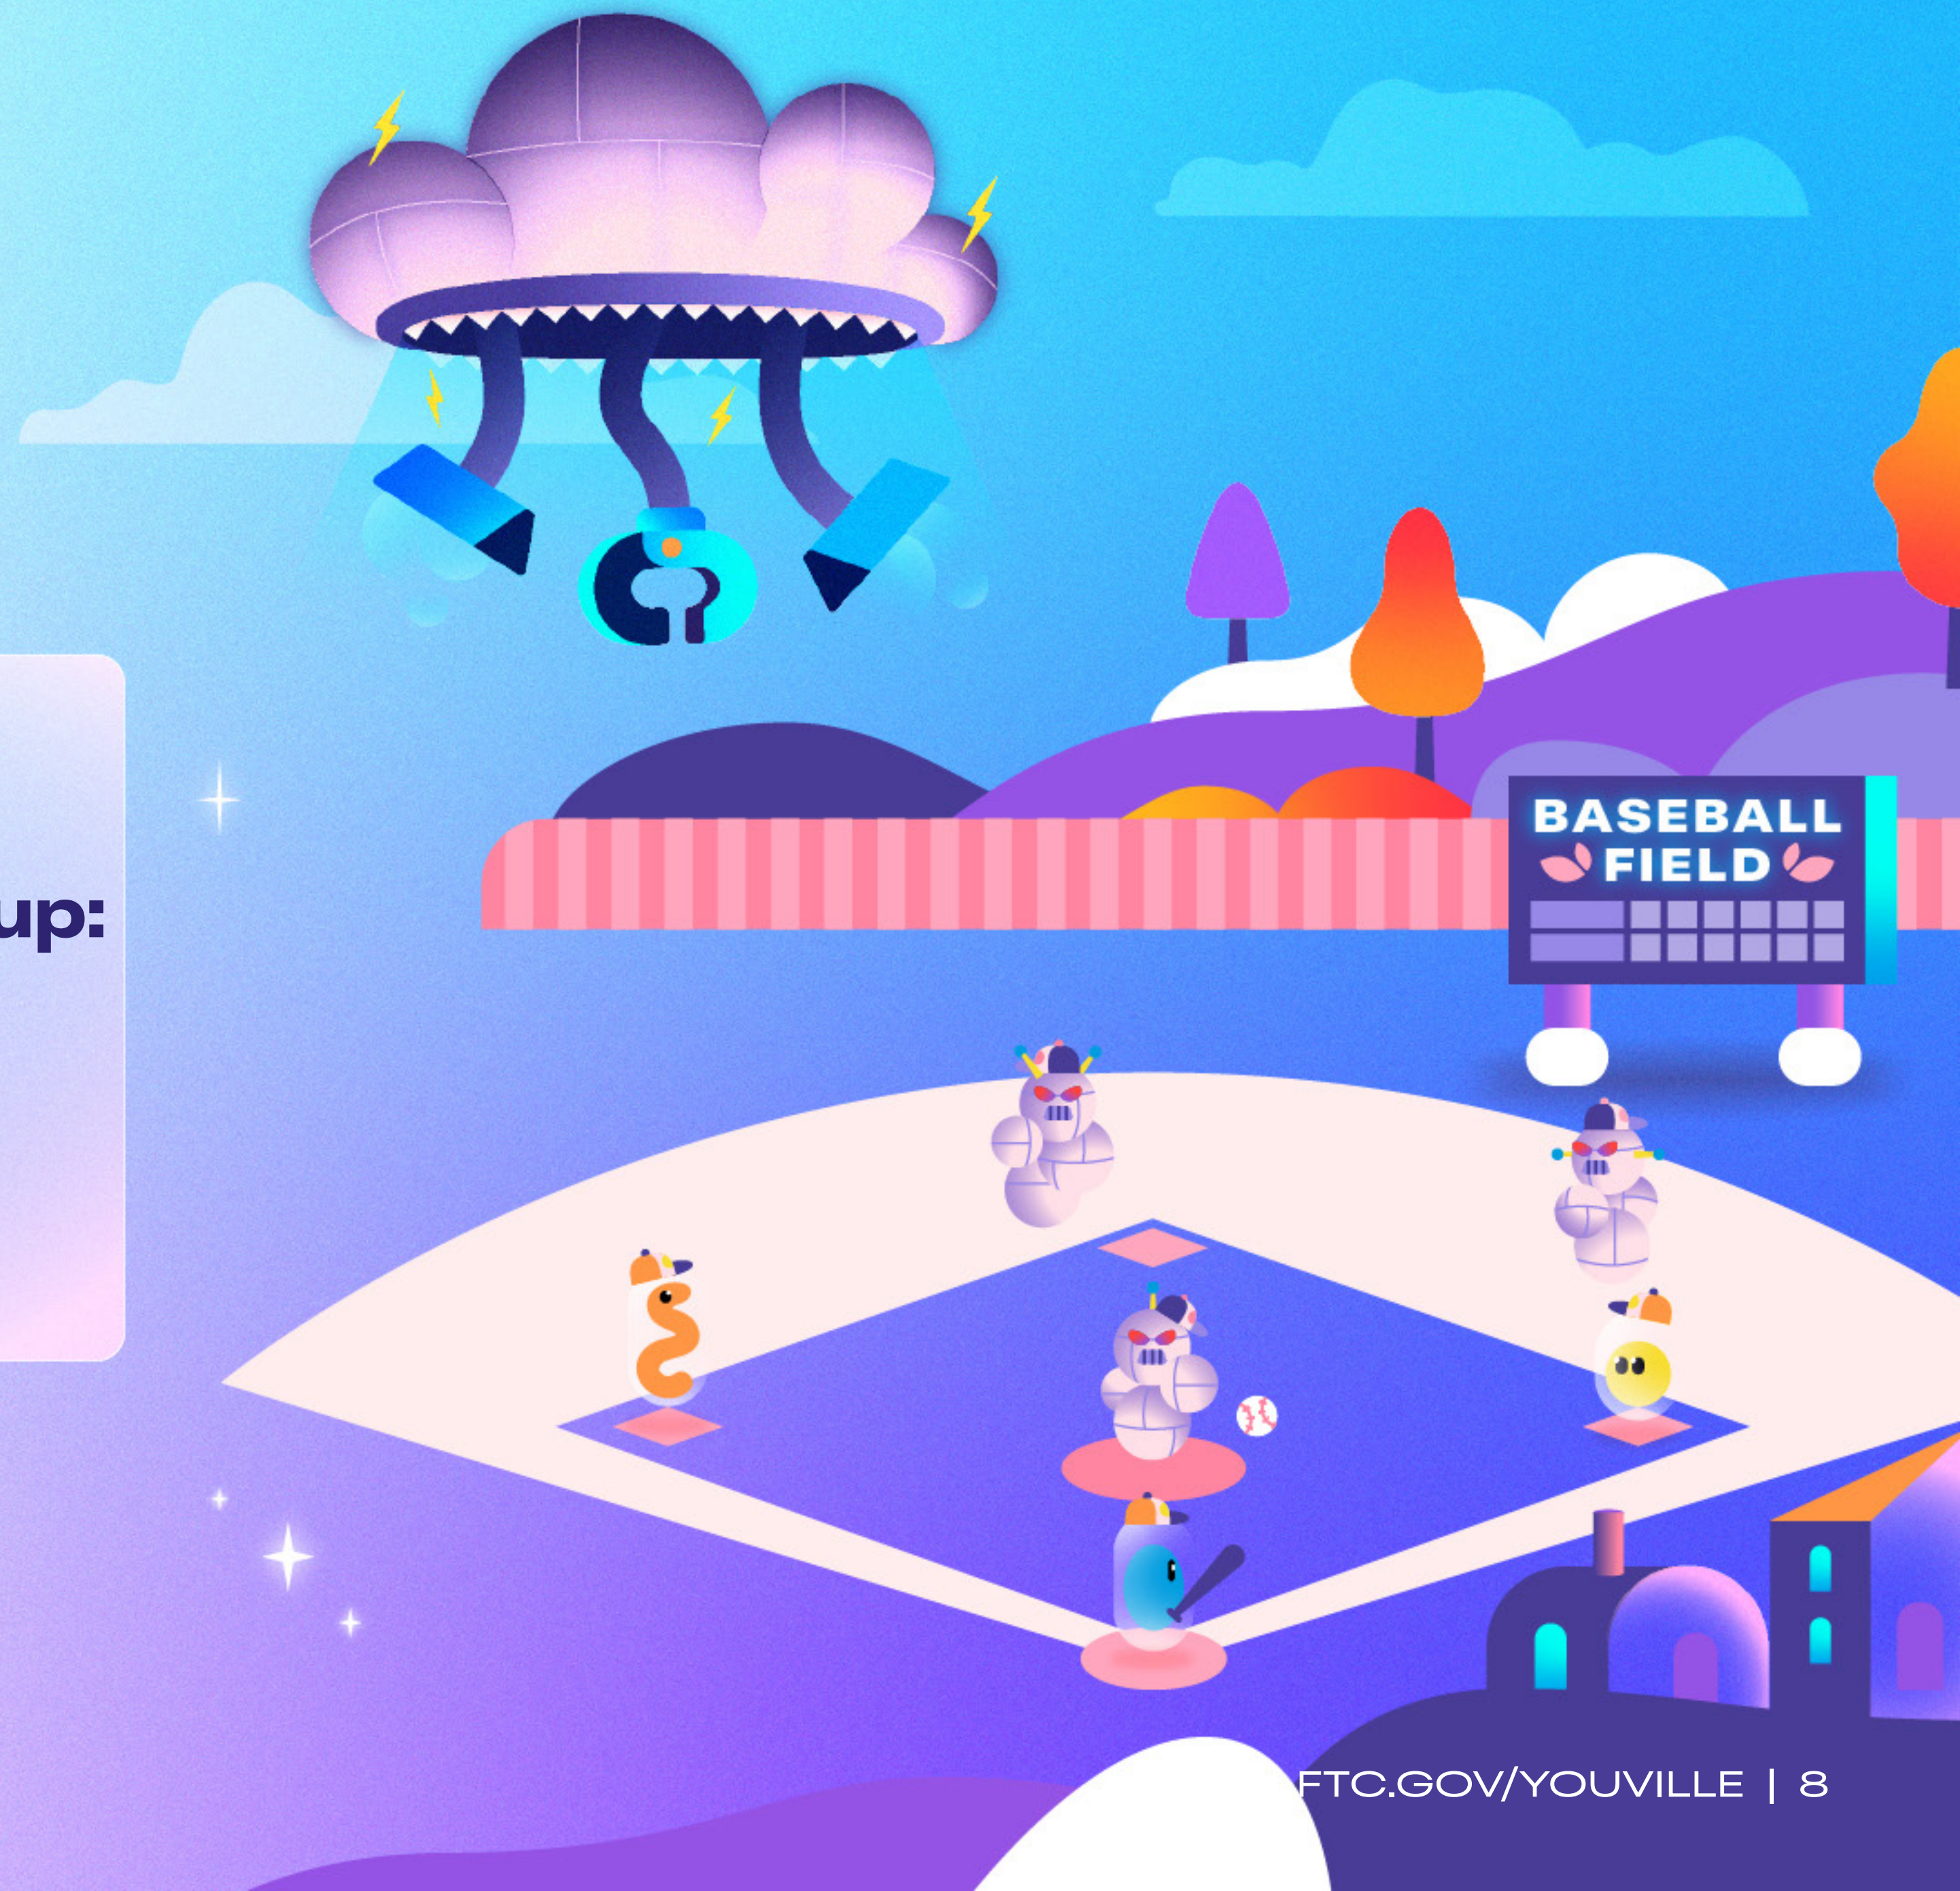

CHALLENGE ACTIVITY

Clear the Bases!

It's game day in Youville.

There's a classic baseball matchup:
Clouds versus Youbies.

Help the Youbies win by keeping their personal information safe.

Clear the Bases!

- 1 WHO wants this information?
- 2 WHAT are they trying to get me to do?
- 3 WHY do they want my personal information?

YOUVILLE

HOW TO PROTECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION
ACTIVITY SHEET • FTC.GOV/YOUVILLE

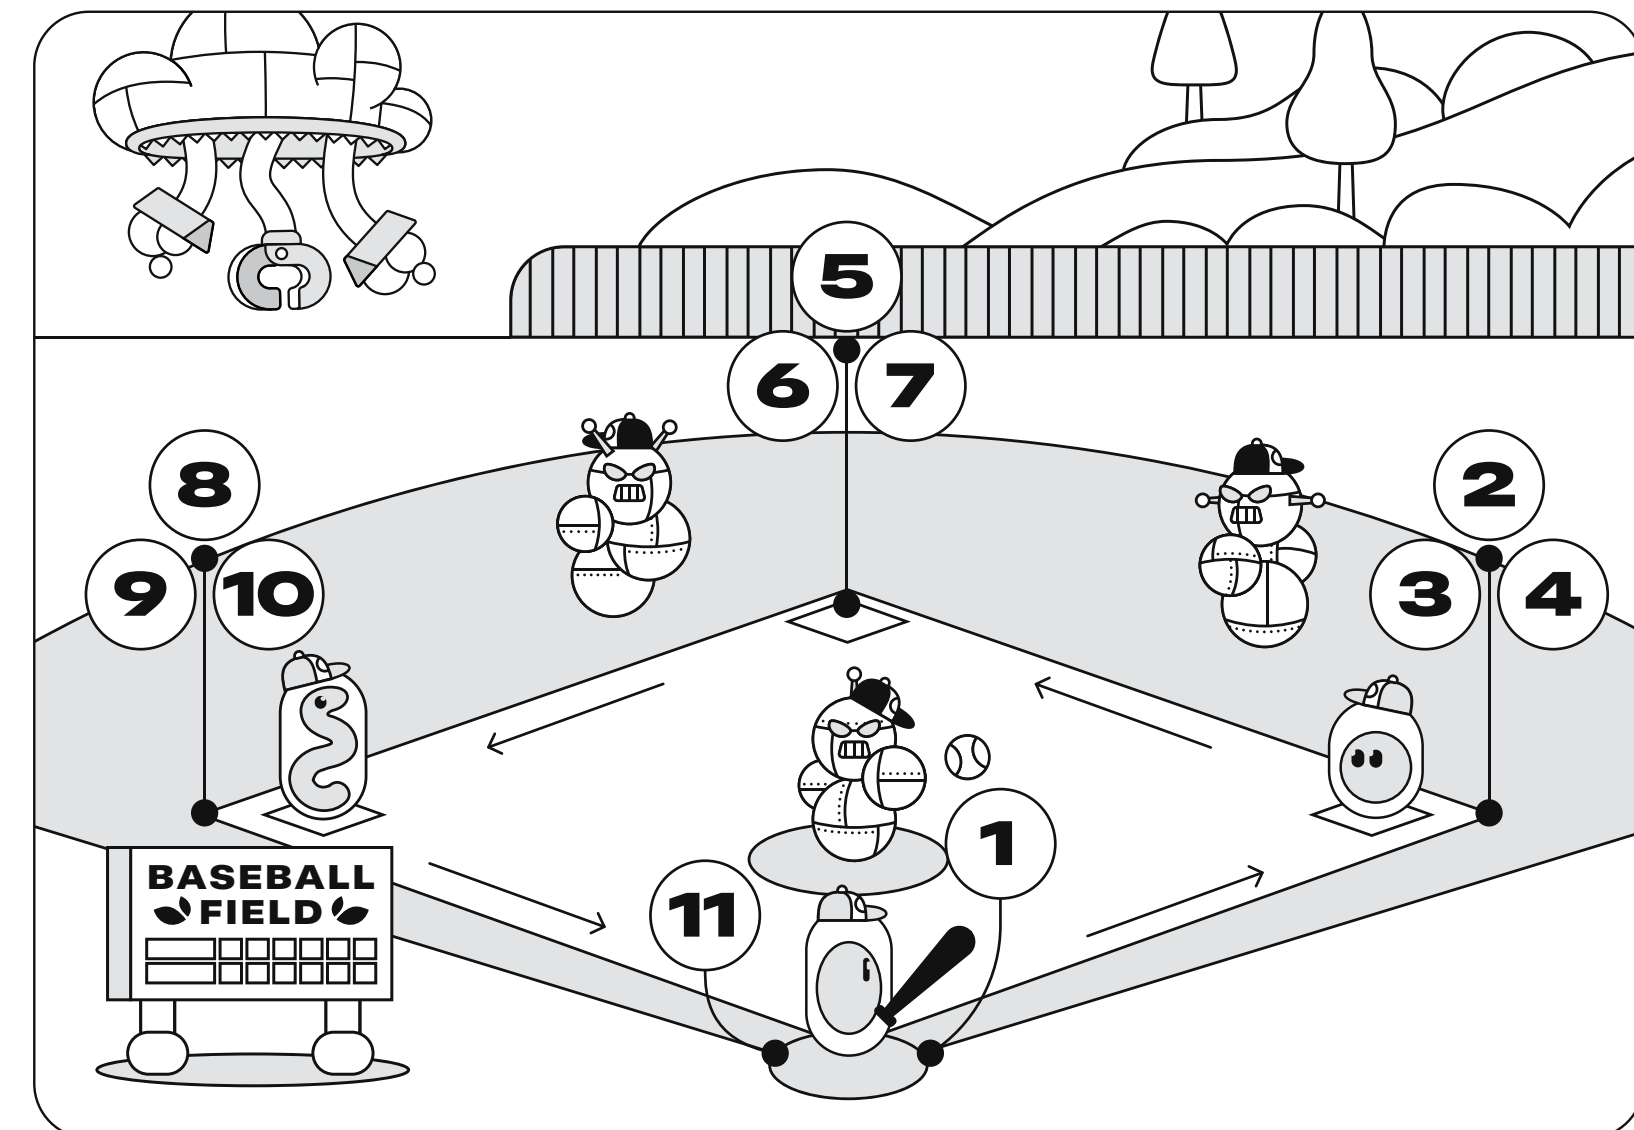

Help the Youbies Clear the Bases

It's game day in Youville. There's a classic baseball matchup: Claudies versus Youbies.

The Claudies throw curveballs and fastballs to get the Youbies to share their personal information. Help the Youbies score on the Claudies by keeping their information safe.

Read each scenario. Discuss the three questions below. Then write down what you would do next. Clear the bases to make it back home and win the game.

- WHO wants this information?
- WHAT are they trying to get me to do?
- WHY do they want my personal information?

CHALLENGE ACTIVITY

Good Job!

Looks like the Youbies protected their personal information from The Claud.

The Claud has moved on to another part of Youville.

